Dear Jerry:

Congratulations! You have earned the 2007 Reseller Quality Program Award for Excellence in Customer Service.

Webco Communications has repeatedly demonstrated a dedication to quality throughout the sales, installation, and training cycles of the countless systems you successfully deployed in 2007.

Your participation in the Reseller Quality Program is a vital ingredient to our advancement in the marketplace. The ESI end user provides us with invaluable information about his system experiences and enhancement suggestions that help to continually grow our product family in innovative and meaningful directions.

We are truly grateful for the job you do, and for your continued business. As a Quality Reseller, you are a valuable asset and business partner to each and every company that chooses to do business with you.

Please accept our commendation for your commitment to excellence during 2007, and our best wishes for a happy and profitable 2008.

Sincerely,
